```
index frameworks
                            X auto_complete.js
File Edit View
                                                                                  (3)
                                                                                       File
                                                                                           Edit View
<html>
                                                                                        <?php
                                                                                        %Frameworks = array("CodeIgniter","Zend Framework","Cake
PHP","Kohana");
$name = $_GET["name"];
<title>PHP MVC Frameworks - Search Engine</title>
<script type="text/javascript" src="auto_complete.js"></script>
                                                                                       fif (strlen($name) > 0) {

$match = "";

for ($i = 0; $i < count($frameworks); $i++) {

if (strtolower($name) == strtolower(substr($frameworks[$i], 0,</pre> </head>
<body>
<hbody>
<h2>PHP MVC Frameworks - Search Engine</h2>
<h2>

<torm method="POST" action="index.php">
<input type="text" size="40" id="txtHint" strlen($name)))) {
  if ($match == "") {
                                                                                       $match = $frameworks[$i];
} else {
onkeyup="showName(this.value)"> </form>
                                                                                        $match = $match . " , " . $frameworks[$i];
Matches:  </body>
</html>
                                                                                        echo ($match == "") ? 'no match found' : $match;
                                                                                   Ln 17, Col 3 140%
                                                  Windows (CRLF)
                                                                        UTF-8
                                                                                                                                        Windows (CRLF) UTF-8
Ln 12, Col 23
                                                                           (a) 🐧 🗀 (b) 📵 (b) 📋 🔊 👛
                                                                                                                                                Q Search
```

